

Manage your reports more with Airgas.com!

On Airgas.com, we give you the option to set cylinder and account balance reporting in the profile area. Here you can set the frequency of your reporting.

Do I need to set up these reports?

Yes. They are initially set to 'disabled' and you need to enable the reports you want to receive.

How do I receive the reports? Your reports are sent to the email address used to login to the account.

How to manage your Airgas reporting:

- Login to Airgas.com
- From the toolbar, select 'More' then 'Profile'
- To view your payment preferences, click on the 'Manage Reports' tab
- All your current accounts will be shown as rows in a table
- You can set both the 'Cylinder' and 'Account Balance' reporting separately
- Both can be set 'Monthly', 'Weekly' or be 'Disabled'
- Click 'Save Changes' to confirm any changes you have made to reporting frequency
